

EMBROIDERED PHOTOS - ANZERI

Maurizio Anzeri makes his portraits by sewing directly into found vintage photographs. His embroidered patterns garnish the figures like elaborate costumes, but also suggest a psychological aura, as if revealing the person's thoughts or feelings.

HOW TO DO IT

- Select a photograph to work with - if it is printed on paper cover the back with sellotape or sticky backed plastic
- Use tracing paper to draw your design lightly in pencil and then use a pin to pierce holes in appropriate places through your photo
- Thread a needle and start to join up the holes with stitching - be careful not to pull the thread too tight
- Use sellotape to attach the end of the thread to the back of the photo - this will stop the thread pulling through
