

INK WASH - LOUI JOVER

Loui Jover is an Australian painter and artist. He is known for his artwork in ink wash paintings on vintage book pages. Jover started his work on art in his childhood, but did not start public art until 1989, when he joined the Australian army as an illustrator and photographer.

HOW TO DO IT

- Cover your surface (cartridge paper) with pages from an old book -we have old encyclopaedias in school
- Use masking tape to attach your paper to the whiteboard or a wall
- Project your chosen image onto your surface using a computer or an overhead projector
- Use ink to draw your image - let it run if it needs to and make sure you can see the paper through the ink - keep it diluted with water
- Let your work dry then go back and darken areas that need it
- Once it's dry again you can add extra details using paint - look at how Jover creates the eyes in his portraits

'IF I COULDN'T BE AN ARTIST I
WOULD DO
NOTHING. I
WOULD JUST SIT
